In today's bible reading Jesus teaches his friends about knowing God's message of love using a story about a farmer scattering seeds. Some seeds land in a good place where they can grow, others don't. He tells them (and us) ...

The seeds that fell along the road are the people who hear God's message but don't understand it.

The seeds that fell on rocky ground are the people who hear the message and but don't have deep roots, as soon as life gets hard they give up.

The seeds in the thorns are people who hear the message but they start worrying about stuff, so the message gets choked out.

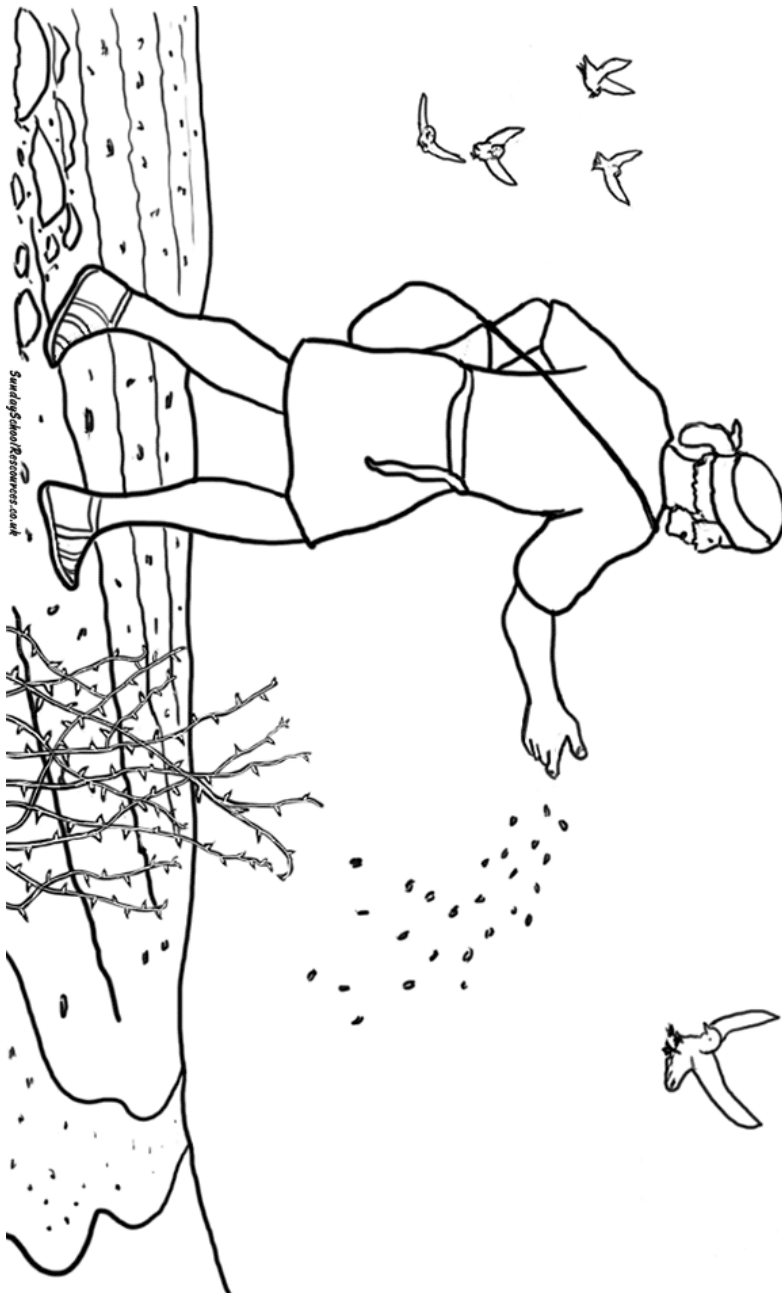

The seeds that fell on good ground are the people who hear and understand the message.

See if you can remember this story and tell it to as many people as possible. Ask God to help you hear and keep his message. If you can, plant a seed and nurture it.
