Enjoy these activities during this week's service or in the week ahead 😊

In today's Bible story we learn about John the Baptist. He came to tell everyone about Jesus even before Jesus started to talk about God's kingdom. John lived in the desert. People came to see him to learn about God and say sorry for their sins. John baptised people, which involved being blessed by water. John told everyone that someone more powerful would come. He was special and would bless them with the Holy Spirit.

Who do you think John talked about? Why was he telling people about saying sorry for their sins?

Do you need to say sorry to God for something? Ask Jesus to bless you with his Holy Spirit.
